Team Competition Rules

All participants are automatically entered in the Team Competition.

Athletes earn team points based on results of individual competition and the winner of the consolation bracket.

Team Points - Qualifying

- For draws of 16 or more participants there will be feed-in to the consolation bracket until the quarter finals. Main draw team points will begin to count starting with the winners of the quarter finals of the main draw. (example: winner of quarter finals, semi-finals, gold and bronze all win points)
- For draws of 15 and fewer participants – team points will begin when the draw has equal amount of players. (example: byes or no shows in first rounds do not count for team points)
- Girls' and Boys' points will be combined towards one High School Team State Champion.
- There will be no substitutions or draw changes after the event has started.

Main Draw

- Each qualifying singles and doubles victory in the main draw is awarded 4 points.
- The Gold medal winner in the main draw of each event will get 2 additional points (6 total points).
- The Bronze medal winner of each event will get 4 points towards their team's total points.

Consolation

- The winner of the consolation for each event will get 4 points towards their team's total points.

Team Trophy

- The winner of the Team Competition will be the school with the highest total points.
- The Colorado State Team Champions will receive a permanent trophy to display in their school's trophy case.
